Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Following in his father's footsteps, Frank Carroll worked for the United States Forest Service for over 31 years; and,

Whereas, During his career, Frank has worked in Missoula, Montana, for the United States Post Office as a mail carrier, and at southern Arizona's Saguaro National Monument Park Service as a firefighter; and,

Whereas, Frank's education started after earning a degree in History and English at the University of New Mexico and a Masters in Public Administration at Boise State in Idaho; and,

Whereas, Frank was hired full-time in Santa Fe, California, working on the new fire planning - closest forces concept; and,

Whereas, Frank took a five year graduate seminar in communications and lobbying for the forest products industry from 1997 to 2003 with Potlatch Corporation in Idaho and Minnesota, finishing as Director of Public and Governmental Affairs for their Eastern Region; and,

Whereas, Frank will enjoy his retirement with his wife, Audrey, and his three daughters, Jessica, Merri, and Lauren and his grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Frank's family, colleagues, and friends will join him in a retirement reception on January 14, 2012:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 14, 2012, as in South Dakota, I join with his family, colleagues, and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

FRANK CARROLL DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State